

INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY MALAYSIA
DRESS CODE

ARRANGEMENT OF RULES

PART 1

PRELIMINARY

Rule	Page
1. Citation	5
2. Application	5
3. Interpretation	5

PART II GENERAL CODE

4. Display of the University's identification card	9
5. Approved attire	9
6. Attire must cover the aurah	10
7. Formal dressing	11
8. National dress	11
9. Cross dressing	12
10. Accessories and jewelleryes	12
11. Ceremonial attire	12

12.	Trousers	13
13.	Upper dress and blouse	13
14.	Hairstyles	13
15.	Head-cover and men headwear	14
16.	Footwear	14

PART III PENALTY

17.	Compound	15
18.	Subsequent misconduct	16
19.	Failure to settle compound	16

PART IV MISCELLANEOUS

20.	Enforcement of rules, orders, directives, etc	17
21.	Reservation	17
22.	Presumption	18
23.	Duty of office-bearers, etc. of an organisation, body or group	18
	Appendix 'A'	19

INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY MALAYSIA

DRESS CODE

In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 40 (1) (e) of the Constitution of the International Islamic University Malaysia, the Board of Governors makes the following code:

PART 1

PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. This code may be cited as the International Islamic University Malaysia Dress Code, and may be referred to as “IIUM Dress Code”.

Application

2. IIUM Dress Code shall apply to every student and staff of the University.

Interpretation

3. In this IIUM Dress Code, interpretation made by the University in relation to the IIUM Dress Code shall be final and conclusive unless the context otherwise requires:

“disciplinary misconduct” means a misconduct committed under the relevant disciplinary rules governing staff and students of the University;

“Executive Personnel” means the following persons:

- i. Chief Librarian;
- ii. Chief Medical Officer;
- iii. Executive Director of Finance Division;
- iv. Head in-charge of security;
- v. Head in-charge of academic management and admission;
- vi. Dean of Kulliyyahs and Centres;
- vii. Head in-charge of student affairs;
- viii. Head in-charge of international affairs;
- ix. Head in-charge of residential and services;
- x. Head in-charge of information technology;
- xi. Principal;
- xii. Hospital Director;

This list is non-exhaustive and the Rector may include any other person or persons from time to time as he deems necessary;

“formal activities” means all activities organised by the University or by other entities registered under the University, conducted either through physical or virtual means, and shall include but not limited to classes, talks, forums, symposiums, social gatherings, shows, sporting or recreational events, and staff and student programmes;

“Identification card” means the Student’s Matriculation Card or the Staff Card;

“Mahallah” means any accommodation by whatever name called, provided by the University for the residence of students;

“officer” means a person including fellows with an executive function attached to any office, department or division whether directly or indirectly under the Executive Personnel in the University, whether such office, department or division is voluntary, or for remuneration, or otherwise;

“Principal means the principal of the Mahallah;

“Rector” as defined in the Constitution;

“Shariah” means the laws of Islam as recognised by ahlul Sunnah wal jama’ah;

“staff” means any person employed under a contract of service with the University;

“student” includes any undergraduate student, postgraduate student, part-time student, student under distance learning or off-campus programme, diploma student, matriculation student, and non-graduating student of the University;

“University” as defined in the Constitution;

“University Authority” as defined in the Constitution and includes any person or body of persons authorised to act on behalf of the University;

Whereas: -

Words importing the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter gender;

The recitals, headings and underlines are for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation of these Rules;

Words and phrases defined in the IIUM Dress Code, shall bear the same meanings herein;

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa;

A reference to any statute or legislation shall, unless otherwise indicated, be a reference to the statute or legislation of Malaysia and includes any statutory modification, amendment or re-enactment thereof;

Reference to “Islam” and “Shariah” shall, unless otherwise indicated, bear the same meaning herein;

All schedules, attachments, notice, standing order, publication and annexure hereto form part of the IIUM Dress Code;

PART II

GENERAL CODE

Display of the University’s identification card.

4. Staff and students shall display their respective University’s identification cards at all material times whilst in the University’s premises except when attending non-formal activities, sports and outdoor activities.

Approved attire

5. (1) Staff and students shall dress in accordance with the approved attire by the University as illustrated in Appendix A of the IIUM Dress Code.

(2) Staff and students shall not wear any attires which have provocative or detrimental designs, images, words or phrases that is against the IIUM Dress Code.

(3) Staff and students are not allowed to wear any attires which symbolise any particular external organisation or group except on certain proper occasions and with the permission from the University Authority.

Attire must cover the aurah

6. (1) The attire of a male in public must be reasonably decent in accordance with the urf (local custom) and shall cover the aurah of the male body except under permissible circumstances such as sporting events and in the Mahallah room.

(2) A female Muslim attire should cover the whole body save for the face and the palm.

(3) A female Non-Muslim may adopt Islamic dress, if she so desires, or at least cover the head with a scarf or shawl or similar headgear as a symbol of respect to the Islamic university.

Formal dressing

7. (1) Staff shall wear approved office attire during the working hours, other official University functions and other formal activities

(2) Students may wear shirts and collared T-shirts when attending classes and the shirts and collared T-shirts shall at all material times be tucked in the trousers.

Notwithstanding the above, the Kulliyyah may determine the proper attire for the students in accordance with the specific requirement of the disciplines of studies.

(3) Slippers, non-strip sandals, round neck T-shirts, tight-fitting trousers including jeans or pants should not be worn by students during lectures, tutorials, official University functions and other formal activities as well as within the proximity of IIUM administrative and faculty buildings and centres.

National dress

8. Staff and students are encouraged to wear complete national dresses/attires provided that they do not violate or infringe the IIUM Dress Code and Islamic values and norms.

Cross dressing

9. Staff and students are not allowed to wear dresses, accessories or cosmetic products which resemble the opposite gender.

Accessories and jewelleryes

10. (1) Staff and students shall not display excessive accessories, apply excessive cosmetic products and use strong perfumes.

(2) Staff and students are not allowed to wear any accessories, which symbolise any particular external organisation or group except on certain proper occasions and with the permission from the University Authority.

(3) No male shall wear necklace and bracelet except for medical purposes and identification or on religious and/or traditional grounds.

Ceremonial attire

11. Save as for convocation, the ceremonial attire for graduands, shall be such as determined by the University from time to time.

Trousers

12. (1) Males are allowed to wear jeans during non-formal activities and during physical activities such as sports or recreation, provided that they are not tight-fitting, multi-coloured, faded, and fancy in design, torn or with patches.

(2) Females may wear loose pants which cover the ankles provided that the pants are worn with long, loose upper dresses, which cover the hip. Tight-fitting or figure-hugging pants are not allowed to be worn except in the Mahallah room.

Upper dress and blouse

13. A female staff and student may wear a loose-fitting blouse and upper dress provided that the items do not have long slits or side cuts which reveal the hips or thigh area, the length covers the hips and the sleeves are long enough reaching the wrists.

Hairstyles

14. (1) The length of the hair of a male shall not extend beyond the collar and the hairdo should not be of unusual or extraordinary style.

(2) Staff and students are prohibited to dye or colour his or her hair unnecessarily.

Head-cover and men headwear

15. (1) A female Muslim is required to wear a proper head-cover which serves the purpose of covering the aurah.

(2) A non-Muslim female is required to cover her head with a scarf or shawl or similar headgear when she is in the University or outside the University when she is representing the University in any formal or informal activities.

(3) Male staff and students shall not wear hats or caps whilst attending official and formal functions except on religious and/or traditional grounds.

Footwear

16. (1) Staff must wear proper office shoes during working hours, official University functions and other formal activities.

(2) The footwear for female shall cover the feet, and the heels of the footwear shall not be excessively high.

(3) Students are allowed to wear formal shoes, sports shoes and strip sandals during lectures, tutorials, official University functions and other formal activities within the proximity of IIUM administrative and Kulliyyah buildings and centres.

(4) Slippers, non-strip sandals and slip-on shoes are prohibited to be worn during the official University functions and other formal activities.

PART III

PENALTY

Compound

17. (1) Any person who contravenes any provision of this Code shall be subjected to a compound for a sum of Ringgit Malaysia Hundred (RM100.00) for each offence under this Code.

(2) A compound issued under this Code shall be paid within fourteen (14) days from the date of its issuance.

(3) A compound issued under this Code shall be dealt with in accordance with the compound procedures made by the University.

(4) Any reduction of a compound issued under this Code shall be decided by the relevant Executive Personnel.

Subsequent misconduct

18. (1) For any subsequent misconduct committed by a student or staff, he or she shall be subjected to a minimum compound of Ringgit Malaysia Two Hundred (RM200.00) and shall not exceed Ringgit Malaysia Five Hundred (RM500.00) for each subsequent misconduct.

(2) Any reduction of a compound issued under this Code shall be decided by the relevant Executive Personnel.

Failure to settle compound

19. (1) Failure of students to settle any outstanding compound in accordance with the compound procedures made by the University shall result in the suspension of the following services:

- (a) online registration of course and Mahallah;
- (b) issuance of course and Mahallah registration slip;
- (c) issuance of examination slip;
- (d) access to examination result; and
- (e) clearance for graduation.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS

Enforcement of rules, orders, directives, etc.

20. Executive Personnel or officers shall enforce this IIUM Dress Code and orders or directives given by the University Authority from time to time.

Reservation

21. (1) The University reserves the absolute right to interpret and decide on any matter including but not limited to any Shariah and Islamic issues.

(2) Notwithstanding the above, in relation to any interpretation of any Shariah and Islamic affair, doctrine or thought including but not limited to all recognised Islamic schools; the University shall have the absolute discretion to decide and determine the interpretation.

Any interpretation and decision made by the University shall be final and conclusive.

Presumptions

22. Muslim students and staff are presumed to have knowledge of the Islamic Dress Code and shall observe the same at all times. Non-Muslim students and staff are presumed to have knowledge of the IIUM Dress Code and shall observe the same at all times.

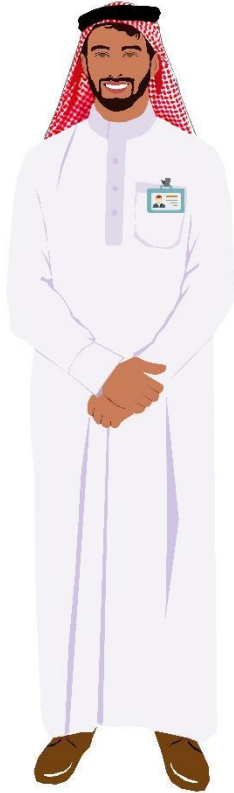

Duty of office-bearers, etc. of an organisation, body or group

23. (1) It is the responsibility of an organiser to inform participants and invited guests on the observance of the IIUM Dress Code. Information of the same shall be reflected in all invitation letters/cards, posters including electronic posters and brochures. Failure to adhere to this provision, the Person-in-Charge or the Director of the Programme shall be subjected to a compound, unless he establishes to the satisfaction of the appropriate University Authority that the misconduct was committed without his knowledge and that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the misconduct.

(2) Any office bearer of, or any student or staff managing or assisting in the management of, any organisation, body or group as referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be liable to be proceeded against under this rule, notwithstanding that he may not have taken part in the commission of the misconduct.

APPENDIX ‘A’

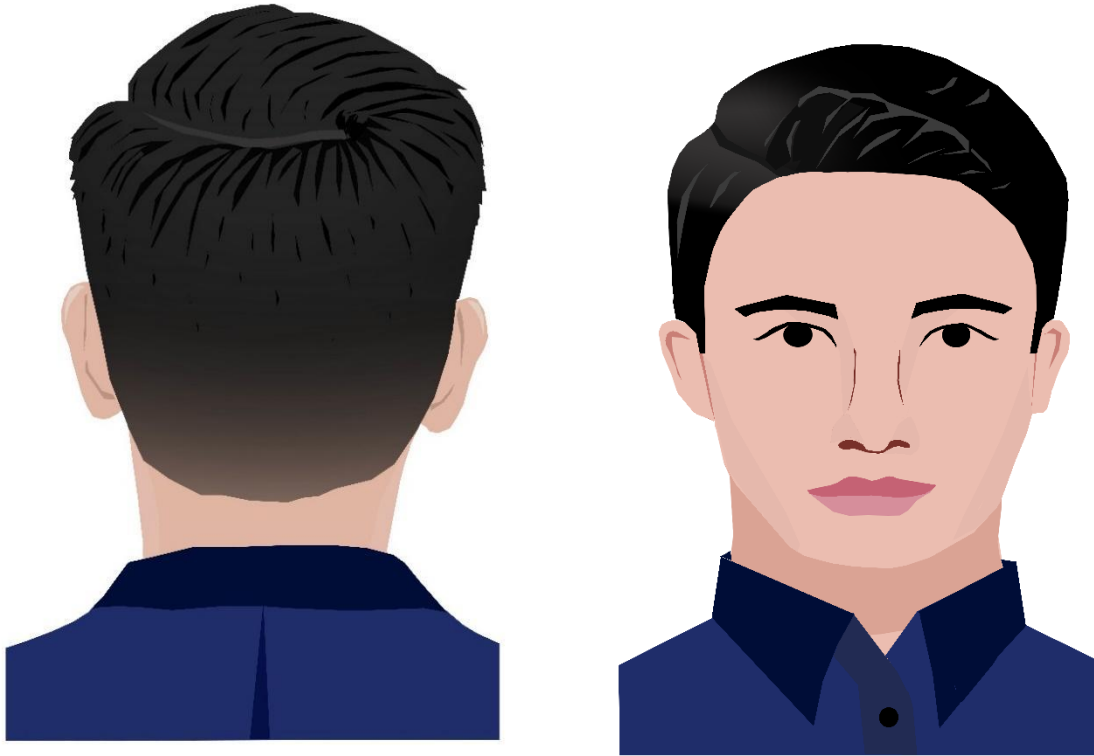

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR FORMAL ATTIRE (MALE)

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR NON- FORMAL ATTIRE (MALE AND FEMALE)

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR HAIR STYLE (MALE)

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR SPORTS ATTIRE (MALE)

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR FORMAL ATTIRE (FEMALE)

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR FORMAL ATTIRE (NON- MUSLIM FEMALE)

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR SPORTS ATTIRE (FEMALE)

IIUM DRESS CODE

Approving Authority	Title	Commencement
Majlis Meeting No. 71 - 28 th February 2006	Standing Order on Conduct & Attire	31 st March 2006
Board of Governors Meeting No. 59 -29 th February 2021	IIUM Dress Code	1 st March 2021